

Girlguiding

Hautbois Senior Section covers the villages of Salhouse, Rackheath, Frettenham, Hoveton, Wroxham, Belaugh, Coltishall, Neatishead and any hamlets in between and is open to young ladies 14+

As part of Girlguiding it offers young women aged 14 to 25 the opportunity to develop their skills and abilities through a flexible and inspiring programme which offers a huge variety of challenges, activities and opportunities for personal development. The recently reopened small unit currently has 6 members aged 14 – 17 years who are looking for a leader to encourage them to complete the Look Wider programme. This offers a range of activities and challenges and motivates them to try out new things – it could be learning a language, playing a musical instrument, running a marathon, camping in the wilds or volunteering overseas. (In August five Hautbois Senior Section members joined some 1st Wroxham Guides at a community project in India). It is flexible and participants can take their chosen activities as far as they wish, from taster level all the way to gaining a qualification that is recognised outside guiding. Members of The Senior Section can undertake a wide range of awards and qualifications. These include the Leadership qualification, which helps them in running guiding units for younger girls, the internationally-recognised Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme, the Queen's Guide Award, the Commonwealth Award and other prestigious awards specific to guiding.

The Unit meet on the first, third and fifth Wednesdays in and around Wroxham depending on the activities chosen by the members. No experience required as we offer training and the opportunity to develop new skills.
